CITY VOTES FOR COUNCIL TUESDAY

THEY WILL LAND HERE . . . Among the first out-of-town bands to accept the invitation to be in the Old Settlers' Day parade here on May 5 was the 45-piece crack U. S. Marine Corps, Department of Pacific band. Pictured are three of the "big brass" of this outstanding musical organization which has won more than 200 first place awards at civic functions and parades. The band is under the leadership of Chief Warrane Officer Daryl G. Sheehan, (on the left). The marching unit is led by Technical Sergeant Jeff Cressionnie (center) while Master Sergeant J. Buccieri (right) takes over the baton occasionally as assistant director.

Plans Go Into Gear For Old Settlers' Day

With only a month to go (May 4-5-6), preparations for the 64th Annual Old Settlers' Celebration swung into high gear this week as the first candidate was entered for the mother of-the-year award and the ninth marching band was registered for the parade.

In addition, Sherry Robinson, 17-yead old Campbell High School senior, became the first entry for queen for the affair. The queen for the celebration will be announced Friday, May 4, at the Footlighters productions, "The Curse of an Aching Heart" or "Caught in the Spider's Web".

The queen will be selected on the basis of ticket sales for this old-fashioned, tear-jerking melodrama which went into rehearsal this week. It is directed by Marg Chamberlin of San Jose State College with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Legg as co-chairmen of the entertainment committee in charge. Orrin Accardi is chairman of the queen committee and candidates for queen will be nominated by various organizations in the community. Each ticket to the play is worth ten votes. Miss Robinson, the first candidate is sponsored by the Bishop O'Dowd Council of the Knights of Columbus.

First Mother

Mrs. Sarah Blue, chairman of the mother selection committee, this week announced that Mrs. Herman Rice has been nominated by the Past Noble Grand Club of the Ada Rebekah Lodge No. 223 for the mother-of-the year honor. This year, because the celebration comes just a week before Mother's Day, the mothers are being specially honored. The mother selected will be honored on Sunday, May 6, at 3 p. m. Mrs. Rice, who has six children and four grandchildren, has been an active member of the Campbell PTA and Methodist Church groups. She has been president of the Women's Service Club and president of the Past Noble Grand Club and has been sponsor of the Job's Daughters and of the Camp Fire Girls. She has been a resident of Campbell all her married life.

William Perkins, chairman of the music committee of the celebration, reported this week that the Union School District band and drum corps, directed by Arthur Margiotti, has entered the parade on Saturday, May 5, making a total of nine marching musical groups that have signed up.

Other Entries

R. M. (Bob) Houston, parade chairman, reported to Sam Cava, coordinator for the entire program, that many entries have been received in all classifications of the parade and that indications are that this year's parade will top all those of the past.

The parade chairman also mentioned that Miss Lynne Levenberg, 10-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Levenberg, of Campbell, is the first entry in the single rider division of the parade. She will ride her horse "Dusty" and this year's event will be the sixth Old Settlers' parade that she has entered. She rode for the first time when she was four years old.

Houston also said that many of the local organizations have already started work on their floats for the parade and that "Mother" will be the theme used throughout.

On The Line in Campbell

More than 90 dozen Easter eggs were prepared for the Campbell Merchants Stamp Association's Easter Egg hunt last week by the Future Homemakers of America at Campbell High School. The girls spent two evenings boiling and coloring the eggs and used an assembly-line system at the coloring bowls, draining baskets and egg crates. Mrs. Adele Charlson, home economics teacher, directed the activity.

—o—

Lowell Benson, of Benson's Campbell Cleaners and president of the Campbell Merchants Stamp Association, announced this week that Myron L. Fairchild has been appointed manager of the association effective immediately.

—o—

The Campbell Press this week editorially endorses John Chargin and Charles Rose, incumbents, for the City Council. The election is next Tuesday, April 10.

Sam Cava was elected president of the Campbell Italian-American Civic Club at the meeting of the organization this week. Renzo Orsi was named vice-president, Fred Burt, secretary and Frank Accardi, treasurer.

According to Joseph V. Gomes, director of the California Prune and Apricot Association and also representative of the Campbell-Los Gatos Prune and Apricot Association, equity retirement and interest payments totaling $827,956.69 are being distributed to grower members.

NEW CHIEF HAS ROUGH LAST DAY

Former Sergeant Darrell Rachford of the Campbell Police Department (now the new Chief of Police, of Alturas in Modoc County) will long remember last Thursday, his final day on the Campbell police force.

At 3 a. m. last Thursday while on his final shift with the local department, Rachford with Richard Sutton, auxiliary policeman, was en route to the sheriff's office, when he was injured in a collision between the police car and another auto at San Carlos St. and Almaden Ave. in San Jose.

Driver of the second car was Felix F. Lopez, of 1011 Regent St., who was cited by the San Jose police for not yielding the right-of-way and unlicenced driving. Chief-to-be Rachford was taken to the emergency hospital and released pending examination of the x-rays taken of his shoulder and legs injured in the collision.

School Building Program Keeps Up Torrid Pace Here

Campbell Union School District has filed a "friendly" condemnation proceeding to acquire approximately 17 acres of land on the east side of Saratoga Ave. between Pruneridge Ave. and Stevens Creek Road for another school site, it was reported this week by C. E. Bradley, district business manager.

Martin and Anna Peterson, owners, were offered $6000 per acre for the site, as a compromise between the $5,200 appraised value and their asking price of $12,500 per acre.

Bradley also reported that tentative sales agreements have been reached with owners of two other sites, Blackford Lane and Cypress Ave, owned by Amelia Morella and Joseph J. Grundell, respectively.

Final approval must come from the Allocation Board, Department of Finance.

Construction of Sherman Oaks School on Fruitdale Ave., the Skow property, is scheduled to start some time after July 6, in accordance with agreement with owners, allowing them to harvest their cherry crop, the business manager reported.

Approval was received last Thursday from State Department of Finance to build three new classrooms for mentally retarded children at Cherry Lane School.

C of C Receives Dues - Questions

Campbell's revitalized Chamber of Commerce which has undergone a complete membership-classification change this week was receiving the first concrete evidence of how potential members would react to its new set-up.

According to Sam Cava, secretary-manager of the C. of C. this "reaction" has been "spotty."

Last week all potential members were billed for dues under the new membership-classification. The billing followed a letter to them explaining the the new dues system. The new plan was established in order for the Chamber to undertake a planned program for the year. Some of the potential members, however ,apparently resentd or did not understand the reasons for the change, Cava reported.

The managgr said in the week 20 members paid their dues without question but 20 others questioned their statements. He hopes that a number in this latter group will react favorably, however, when the program outlined for the Chamber is more fully explained to them.

Commission Postpones Zone Change Action

Local residents anxious to see that present light manufacturing zoning changed of that area on the west side of San Jose-Los Gatos Road between Hamilton and Campbell avenues, will have to wait until the April 19 meeting of the Planning Commission for the report of the study that is being made on a possible zone change for the section.

It was first thought that the report by Commissioners Sam O'Brien, K. D. Priestley and Nestor Barrett, planning consultant, would be ready for tonight's meeting of the commission.

Chairman Homer Hyde, however, reported on Wednesday that because of a heavy agenda tonight and the inability of the commissioners to prepare a complete report now that it was thought advisable to continue the matter to the April 19 meeting. The chairman said that the report will take precedence at the meeting.

A petition bearing 126 names of residents adjacent to the area has been filed with the commission asking that the area be changed to either a R-2-S zone or a C-1-S zone. The City Council has also asked the commission to make a study of the situation with the possible objective of changing the zone. Chairman Hyde pointed out that the report of the commissioners is only the first step toward re-zoning of the area and that before any change would be made hearings must be held and the matter passed on by the entire commission.

Meets at Club House

The Planning Commission will meet in the Country Woman's Club House on Campbell Ave. tonight at 7:30 p. m. and will hold its meeting at that location from now on. The commission meets the first and third Thursday each month and previously had met in the fire house. The meeting place was changed to accommodate the crowds that have been in attendance at the recent meetings.

There are six public hearings (four continued from previous meetings) on the commission's agenda for tonight's session. Several of the matters are expected to draw both verbal and written protests.

Of interest to many is the application of George Bumb for a use permit to operate a cover and fill rubbish dump in the Los Gatos Creek bed, behind the existing retaining wall.

The hearing on Bumb's use permit was continued from previous meetings in order for the applicant to complete all the requirements that have been laid down by the county health department and city engineer. Bumb has indicated that he has complied with these requirements and it is expected that the commission will take final action tonight.

On Whitehall St.

Another continued hearing up to bat tonight that created a certain amount of furore at a previous meeting is the application for a zone-change by Joseph and Connie Russo for property located on the east side of Whitehall St. The Russos want to erect a sheet metal warehouse at that location. At a previous meeting, residents of Whitehall St. made vociferous objections to such a proposal.

Still another continued hearing tonight on a matter that has raised the ire of some residents is that of the application of Myron R. English for a zone-change from R-1 to C-1-S on property located on Winchester Road next to the Assembly of God church. The church is among the objectors to the change.

On the agenda also is the hearing of M. Tock for a use permit to construct a dwelling on East Campbell Ave., just off San Jose-Los Gatos Road. The property is now zoned C-2-S.

The commission is also expected to set the date for the meeting of all interested parties to discuss the best methods for issuing house and building numbers under the recently adopted city ordinance. The City Council has authorized the meeting.

ROTARIANS HEAR BLOOD BANK TALK

"The Blood Bank and What it Means to the Community" was discussed by Alistair R. Anderson, manager of San Jose Chapter American Red Cross, at Rotary Club meeting last Monday.

Alistair stated that 4,000,000 pints of blood are needed yearly in the United States. He explained how the Blood Bank Credit system works and cited advantages of belonging to such a group.

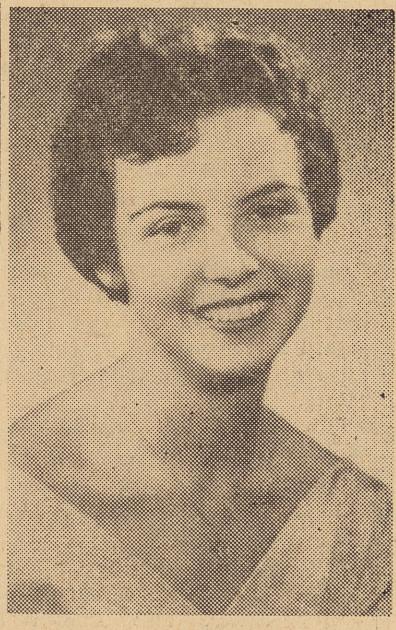
Orv Bacci was chairman for the day.

Commission Okays Water Agreement

The California Public Utilities Commission has approved special provisions in the agreement between the Campbell Water Company and the El Rio Development Company for the supplying of water to local subdivisions, it was reported this week.

The El Rio Development Company, subdividers of units 1, 2, 3 and 4 of the Los Ranchitos tracts in Campbell, will be allowed to contribute substantially toward the estimated cost of the distribution main facilities and the cost of a well for the water company, the commission has ruled.

The application for the deviation in the contract was made before the commission jointly by the water company and the subdivider. The commission action was necessary because the standard approved contract between the water company and developers did not specify these additional contributions by the subdivider. All amounts advanced by the subdivider will be subject to refund by the water company over a period of years, it was pointed out.



QUEEN ENTRY . . . Sherry Robinson, 17, senior at Campbell High School, this week became the first entry in the queen contest for the 64th Annual Old Settlers' Day celebration, May 4-5-6. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Robinson, 1584 DeAnza Way, and is sponsored by the Bishop O'Dowd Council Knights of Columbus, of which Bud Levenberg is grand knight. The queen candidate had the lead in the recent senior play, plays in the school orchestra, is social affairs commissioner

KIWANIANS HEAR OF HOPE SCHOOL

Mrs. Timothy O'Connor, member of board of directors of Hope School, spoke to Kiwanians last Tuesday on the program of the school and presented a film on work being done for retarded children on a national level.

Mrs. O'Connor was introduced by Ted Schenk, program chairman for the meeting.

HELD TO ANSWER

Three of the youths involved in the hold-up of the Cheerio Market, 190 S. Winchester Road, who were apprehended on the Monday after the Saturday stick-up on Wednesday of this week were held to answer in the Superior Court on evidence presented in the San Jose Municipal Court by the local police officers. The youths held were Morris Woods, 21,. Keith Keeley, 20, and Herbert Wenks, 18.

WE GAVE TO CONQUER CANCER
Give AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

CANCER CRUSADE GETS UNDER WAY . . . Herbert M. Shadle, Campbell chairman for the April 1956 Cancer Crusade of the American Cancer Society, points to some of the salient facts of the crusade which has the double aim of educating the public about cancer facts and raising funds for research, educational and service activities. Volunteer workers this week in Campbell went into action with the goal of reaching every person in the community with facts about cancer. Among the local committee chairmen assisting Shadle in the drive are Dr. Robert Wade and William Johnson, education; Mrs. Anna Peterson, distribution of material and Mrs. Sarah Blue, publicity.

Election Interest Lags As Nine Candidates Vie For Three Offices

Despite the fact that nine candidates are vieing for the three seats that are open on the Campbell City Council, the apparent lack of interest in the campaign by local voters indicates a small turn out at next Tuesday's city election.

There are 2385 registered voters in Campbell, Dorothy Trevethan, city clerk reported this week and four precincts have been established for the election, the fourth in the young city's history. The first election was held in 1952 when incorporation won by a scant 53 votes. The first council was elected at that time. In this election 1319 votes were cast

Serves Two Years

The first council served for two years and in 1954 five councilmen were again elected, the two highest, Richard Morton and Jim Arends were named to four-year terms while the other three elected, John Chargin, Charles Rose and Gordon Daum were named for two years. In that election only 842 votes were cast for the 11 candidates from a total registered vote of 2507.

The only other election held by the city was the bond election in October, 1955 when 1059 ballots were turned in out of a registration of 2211. Although 60 per cent of those voting favored the bonds, the proposition lost because it lacked the necessary two-thirds.

Although some of the nine candidates in the current campaign have been electioneering on their own, only one public meeting has been held. Sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club, of Campbell, a forum was conducted at the high school Tuesday night. Less than 50 people, however, attended the forum which was presided over by George Vierhus, editor and publisher of The Press. Because of this apparent apathy of the electorate, a low vote is anticipated next Tuesday.

All candidates accepted the invitation to the BPW forum and all but two were represented. Due to his recent illness, T. M. (Ebb) Bohn was represented by his wife. Other candidates present and who spoke to the group were Fred T. Burt, Myron L. Fairchild, Mrs. Carolyn Coons Payne, Claude Smith and two incumbents, Charles Rose and John Chargin. The two candidates who failed to put in an appearance were Perry Hull and E. Jerry Collins.

Candidates Speak

The candidates at the forum were given an opportunity to present their views with a question and answer period at the close of the meeting. Most of the candidates agreed that an aggressive annexation policy was necessary but some thought that the council was not working hard enough at it.

Several of the candidates mentioned that the town could be improved from an attractive point of view and touched on the subject of needed "window dressing" especially for the Campbell Ave. business district.

One candidate (Burt) claimed that the proposed acquisition of the Congregational Church property for a city hall was a "ticklish question" but had no solution for it when pressed during the question and answer period.

The two incumbents, Chargin and Rose, defended the actions of the City Council during the last two years, pointing out that civic problems can not be solved overnight. They explained that improvements cost money and that they were proud of what has been done in the short time the city has existed.

Four Precincts

Polls will be open on Tuesday from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. Consolidated "A" precinct composed of county precincts, 8, 9 and 12 will be at the Campbell High School. Mrs. Hazel Gilliam will be inspector, Florence A. Myring, judge and Wilda Theroux and Ida N. Page, clerks.

Consolidated "C", Campbell Fire House, 41 N. Central Ave., (county precincts 4, 5, 6. 14) will have Velma C. Olds, inspector, Winnie G. Grizzle, judge and Elizabeth May Bradley and Josephine V. Souto, clerks.

Consolidated "D", Campbell Baptist Church, 115 Sunnyside (county precincts 1, 7, 11) will have Irene Jetton, inspector, Eugenia Smith, judge and Elizabeth B. Bihn and Gertrude Jones, clerks.

RESULTS ON AIR

Throught the cooperation of The Campbell Press and radio station KSJO of San Jose, residents of the Campbell area will be able to get next Tuesday's election results on the air election night.

The Press will go on the air with the radio station wtih the local election results three times during the night at 8:10, 9:10 and 10:10.

IN OFFICE JUNE 17

Ballots in the City Election, Tuesday, April 10, will be canvassed by the present council at a special meeting on April 17, in the council chambers of the Country Woman's Club.

The three council members elected will be sworn into office after the canvass of the votes has been made.

WARNING

Chief of Police Robert Locke this week warned that the Campbell Police Department would rigidly enforce the State laws on parking on the wrong side of the street, a practice that has become quite common in Campbell.

The Chief also said that the department was staging a campaign to halt the disposing of trash on the public streets in the city. He said that citations will be issued to those who continue to use the streets as a dump yard.

REGISTRATION

Registration for voting in the June 5 Primary Election will close next Thursday, April 12. Campbell residents can register at the Fire House, 41 N. Central Ave.

BRIGHT SPOT ON MAP . . . Robert Kahn, new Hamilton Shopping Center Manager, points to location where activity will soon start. Campbell Press photo

NEW MANAGER STEPS UP INTEREST IN HAMILTON SHOPPING CENTER

With the appointment of Robert L. Kahn, real estate consultant of Berkeley, Calif., as manager and leasing agent for the $3 million Hamilton Plaza Shopping Center in Campbell increased activity in the development of this 15-acre site into a deluxe community shopping center is expected within a short time.

Eugene C. Kuehnis, president of the Hamilton Plaza Company, developers of the center located at the intersection of Hamilton Ave., and the San Jose-Los Gatos Road, announced the appointment of Kahn this week.

Kahn is a specialist in the development and management of shopping centers and has been in the real estate business for the past 18 years in Washington, D. C., Portland, Oregon, and most recently assisted in the planning and development of four shopping centers for Hoyt Enterprises of Richmond, Calif. He majored in Business Administration at Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., and has been admitted to the Institute of Real Estate management of the National Association of Real Estate Boards as a certified Property Manager.

He claims that the Hamilton Plaza Shopping Center has strong potential for success in view of the high traffic count on the roads contiguous to this property (more than 20,000 car movements per day), the density of population, the high income status of this population and the tendency of national chains to locate new outlets in shopping centers.

In addition, he adds, to the adequate provisions being planned for the movement and parking of automotive traffic, the center will also be served by bus and will feature a bus shelter and restaurant on the San Jose-Los Gatos Road frontage.

According to the present timetable, construction of the first unit of the 60,000 sq. ft. of the center is expected to be underway by mid-summer of this year.

Preliminary plans for the center have been prepared by Hollis Logue, Jr., architect, A. I. A., a member of the Campbell Planning Commission and former chairman of the group.

The center is designed as a community shopping center to serve the 75,000 people who will be living in the trading area by 1960. This trading area is comprised principally of Campbell and the area lying between San Jose, Santa Clara and Los Gatos. The primary trading area within a two-mile radiius of the site presently has a population estimated to be 35,000.

The design of the center contains 127,000 sq. ft. of retail selling area with parking space for 10,000 cars per day. Contemplated for the center are a 30,000 ft. junior department store, 20,000 ft. major supermarket, 10,000 ft. chain variety store, super drug, bank and thirty other retail and service shops. In addition, Stone & Schulte, Realtors & Builders of San Jose, will combine their real estate and executive offices in new accommodations in the Hamilton Plaza Shopping Center.

Future planning calls for a medical-dental building to be erected adjacent to the Center.

THE PRESS FAVORS CHARGIN AND ROSE

The Press in this issue takes the rather unusual step in a local election and urges the voters in the City of Campbell to cast their ballots in next Tuesday's city election for the two incumbent councilmen, John Chargin and Charles Rose.

There are nine candidates for the three positions that are open on the council and by endorsing the two incumbents for two of the posts we do not mean to imply in any manner that the other seven candidates are not qualified.

We simply feel that the city's best interests can be better served by the two incumbents, who for the past two years have worked unceasingly for the betterment of the city.

The City of Campbell is a young municipality. It is now only in its fourth year, and naturally considerable time has been spent during these four years in getting the city off the ground.

We are positive that many of the wrinkles that are a part of the organizing of a city have now been ironed out and that the way is clear for positive action in city government. Both Chargin and Rose for the past two years have been a part of this ironing out process and they know what has to be done, if Campbell is to advance and progress.

A number of projects have been started by our city government; both men are interested in seeing that these projects are carried out to a successful conclusion.

Granted that during the last two years mistakes have been made. Granted that perhaps the council has not moved as fast as some people would have wanted it. Granted that too much time may have been spent in technical delay and not enough in aggressive action.

Grant all these points and then ask whether anyone else could have done better.

We are convinced that the City Council is made up of a group of honest, hard-working, intelligent individuals who have the best interests of the city at heart. They have given countless hours of their own time, for which they have received no compensation to the efficient administration of the city.

The job of councilman is a thankless one for the most part. Members are always fair prey for the malcontents. Councilmen are always open to criticism for no one can satisfy or please all the people.

If the elected officials honestly act in a manner in what they consider the best interests of the city, the electorate, even if some disagree with the actions can hardly ask for more.

We maintain that during the two years that John Chargin and Charles Rose have served on the City Council, they have sincerely tried to work at all times for the betterment of the city.

That they are sincere there can be no question. That they are honest there can be no doubt.

If they are willing to take the time and the subsequent verbal beating for another four years on the City Council, we think they should be endorsed to do so and receive a vote of confidence of the people because of it.

We urge you to vote next Tuesday regardless of whom you favor.

We are certain the city will be in safe hands no matter what three candidates are named.

We are certain that your confidence will not be misplaced in John Chargin and Charles Rose and we are pleased to endorse them for the positions.

LET'S FACE IT SQUARELY

There has been a tremendous growth during the past few years and all indications point toward this growth increasing in its pace.

The latest big industry to announce that it was picking Santa Clara County as its location is General Motors. And there will be more.

Campbell must be prepared to expand and progress. The growth will in some manner affect every resident and all of us must be prepared to face it.

There must be long-range planning and there will be many changes made. Some of them will be revolutionary in scope, but will be forced on us whether we like them or not.

Let's do some determined thinking on the subject and face it squarely.

It's later than we think.

OUT on the LIMB

George Vierhus

We never cease to be amazed at "grand openings" because we are almost always dead wrong in our predictions about 'em.

When we view the hectic pre-opening rush and all the details that must be completed before the doors can swing open, we are prone to shake our head in sympathy and mumble something about "it can't be done".

In almost every case we have been proved wrong. The doors do swing open on time, the shelves are completely stocked and the clerks greet the customers just as graciously as if it happened all the time.

Despite this apparent outward calm that descends on the store after it is opened there is no denying that the pre-opening goings-on are a strain on all concerned.

Bill Means, who is opening the modern new drug store in the Campbell Shopping Center at Latimer Ave., and Winchester Road, worked day and night preparing the store for its big day. We appreciate the work and worry that went into it but we think the results certainly compensated for the labor in a big way. It is one of the most attractive stores we have had occasion to visit for many a moon.

We think we owe Bill that plug because of the one he gave us inadvertently the other day when we were shooting a picture of him and Myron Fairchild, the new Campbell Merchants Stamp Association manager. We took the picture by the prescription counter near the phone in Bill's new store (the latest member of the stamp association).

When the phone rang Bill picked it up and, much to our pleasure and glee answered, "Campbell Press".

He hurriedly corrected his mistake but we wonder what the party on the other end was thinking.

There may be a connection, however, that we hadn't thought about until someone in our office brought it up.

"Prescriptions and subscriptions do sound alike", he said.

—o—

The Press in this issue in its editorial columns urges your support of John Chargin and Charles Rose, incumbents, for the City Council in the election next Tuesday. There are three spots to be filled on the council and we maintain that the two councilmen who are seeking reelection should be named to them. They have both indicated their devotion to the city and its problems.

If they feel that they can afford to take the time to continue working for the good of the city, we feel that a vote of confidence by the people is in keeping.

By the way, this election brings up an interesting point in newspaper parlance. In our profession we often refer to city councils as "city dads" or "city fathers".

In this election Carolyn Coons Payne is strongly in the race. Should she be elected we are wondering whether it would be amiss to continue to refer to the council as "city dads".

To be absolutely correct we suppose we would really have to say "city dads and mother".

Maybe we had better first check with newspapers in other communities where gals are on the council to see how they do it.

—o—

More and more the modern gals are disposing of the age-old myths (we are not lisping) concerning feminine traits! We have just learned from Joe Anello, The Press ad manager, that the supposedly traditional dislike women have for mice may be soon a thing of the past. If this is true, cartoonists, jokesters, writers and photographers will have to make a drastic change in their material.

Joe tells us that when a little miss in his neighborhood last week ran into her house when her mother called, the little girl was proudly carrying a dead mouse by its tail.

When her mother, in the hysterical feminine way exclaimed in horror, little Kathy, age 4½, said not to worry.

"The mousie is dead," she told her mother, "I killed it."

See what we mean.

Forgery cases played a large part this week in the activities of the Campbell police department On Friday, Jack Doyle Smotherman was sentenced to 90 days in the county jail for forgery of checks and Luther (Red Dog) Dodson was sentenced also to 90 days for passing checks forged by Smotherman.

On Sunday, Norman S. Kimble, 21 Kennedy St., was apprehended on a felony warrant signed by Officer Dick Mayne. He was charged with writing and passing four fictitious checks in Campbell during the month of February.

Bell Telephone TV Show Goes On Air Sunday

The Bell Telephone System's first network television show will go on the air this Sunday, April 8, over the CBS network at 5:30 P. M. Pacific Standard Time.

The show is "Telephone Time," and will be a weekly series of half-hour film dramatizations from the stories of John Nesbitt, long known in radio and movies as a story narrator. The nationwide prgram will be seen each Sunday.

The series is being filmed at the Hal Roach Studios in Hollywood. Hal Roach, Jr. is the executive producer and Jerry Stagg is the producer. John Nesbitt will appear in each film to introduce the story.

Thirteen stories in the series have already been produced. The stories will show a wide variety in type, time and locale. Some are comedies, some are tragedies, but all show the reaction of a real human being to a real life problem.

The Bell System's sponsorship of the Telephone Hour on 18 radio stations each Monday night at 9 o'clock Pacific Standard Time will continue.

STAGING THEIR GRAND OPENING . . . This Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the Holiday Super Market in the Holiday Shopping Center, at the corner of Payne Ave., and Saratoga-Santa Clara Road (across from the Morelnd School) is staging its grand opening. The huge market has actually been open for business since early March and the three owners, George DeLap, Robert Smith and George McKenzie (pictured above from left to right) feel now they have "all the bugs out of their operation" and are ready to go full tilt. In preparation for the grand opening, the parking lot accommodating 250 cars, has been completely paved. They plan to expand the lot to take care of 1000 cars eventually. The three partners have had years of experience in market operation and have used their experience to a good advantage in setting-up the new super-market. The center was built and designed by Nicholas Colombo and includes space for 12 other stores. Convenience for the customers has been the underlying theme throughout plus a special emphasis on friendly relationship, with their customers. —Campbell Press photo.

Teletypewriter Network Covers Roads in State

A state-wide teletypewriter network operated by the Division of Highways plays a major role in providing Californians with the fastest and most complete winter road reports in the nation.

The system is so efficient that many times a storm is still raging as reports of its devastation are reaching the public. Under ordinary conditions, a complete state-wide road report by 10:00 A. M. is considered routine.

The teletypewriter network, installed and maintained by Pacific Telephone, transmits information gathered by the Division's two-way FM radio system to every point in the state—quickly and accurately.

Each morning during the critical winter months, Division of Highways foremen all over the state inspect their own areas and send reports by radio to their maintenance superintendents. The reports are then passed on to a district office, which in turn radios them to headquarters in Sacramento.

A special code is used to simplify and speed up the transmission. The Sacramento office compiles the state-wide report.

This is where the teletypewriter comes in. An operator cuts a tape on the report. By running the tape through a machine, the complete report can be sent to teleeypewriter receivers all over the state simultaneously. It is then passed on to newspapers, radio and TV stations, and other interested organizations.

It was soon after the Revolutionary War that Eli Whitney invented the cotton gin.

Local High School Teacher to Study At German School

Learning about modern day Germany's social, political, and economic problems first hand later this year will be Campbell High School history teacher, Pat Kutzner. This summer, Miss Kutzner will serve as a counselor in a childrens' camp sponsored by UNESCO.

Next Fall she will attend the University of Bonn at Heidelberg where she hopes to do graduate work in the German language, although German was her minor in college, she can already read and write the language and hopes to improve her proficiency in speaking it.

Upon her return to CUHS, Miss Kutzner will be prepared to teach German as well as U. S. history. German has not been offered at Campbell High for the past decade.

Miss Kutzner is being sponsored by an unpronounceable polysyllabic—The Internationale Jugend gemeinschaftsdienste — German Service Organization.

CITY COUNCIL CANDIDATES ISSUE STATEMENTS

CHARLES ROSE
. . . Incumbent

ROSE SAYS: "As an incumbent, I am running for re-election to continue the projects we have undertaken during the last two years. We have made progress towards providing the citizens of Campbell with better service from all departments, and have started our storm drainage and highway improvement program.

"I would like to see our waste creek-bed land converted into a park-site and recreation area, and our city enlarge its boundaries, developing industrially along the railroad right of way . . I look forward to the day when our much needed city hall will be in operation, and if I am re-elected, I will work as before, in the best interests of all the people of Campbell."

Orchard City Grange

An April Showers program will be featured on Past Masters night of Orchard City Grange at Odd Fellows Hall in Campbell Tuesday.

FRED T. BURT

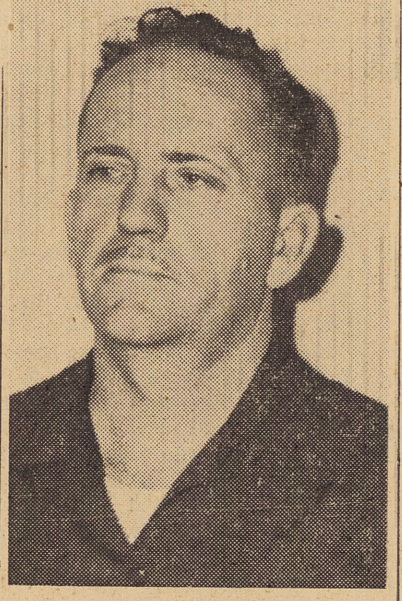
BURT SAYS: "I am running for City Council because first I consider it a matter of civic duty to enter these campaigns for local city offices and by so doing we can encourage interest in the city government. Secondly, I believe my experience in accounting and, especially municipal accounting will be of value to the city government in the preparation of budgets and other financial affairs.

"Moreover, I believe we must adopt a more vigorous annexation policy, if the City of Campbell is to continue as a separate entity. I believe we must encourage industry to come to Campbell, and adopt at least, a limited policy of city improvements in streets and buildings."

Dover School

Nomination of officers for the coming term will take place at the Home and School Club meeting Monday at 7:30 p. m. Pete Zavlaris will preside at the meeting.



PERRY HULL
. . . Carpenter

HULL SAYS: "My chief interest is to see the growth of Campbell; but in order to do so we must have industries. Therefore, we must have annexations to obtain land. At the present we are being engulfed by other cities on three sides and that leaves just one direction to expand and that is to the south. Unless this condition is corrected in the near future, we will be completely surrounded by other cities which would control our growth and protection.

"Our city is also undermanned in the fire and police departments. The auxiliary police and volunteer firemen are being used to augment the hiring of regular paid police and firemen, for which they receive no compensation."

T. M. (EBB) BOHN
. . . Public Relations

BOHN SAYS: "My earnest desire is to help make this new city of ours the kind of place that all who live here will be proud and happy to say of it, "Campbell is my home town". Our schools and churches are doing their very best to provide adequate recreational facilities for our young people. However this is not sufficient for all.

"We need a youth center. Occupied people are safe and sound people. Let us pull together to help and keep our young people that way. Lt us not forget either our oldsters, those who brought Campbell this far. Let us provide for them a place where they can spend their leisure hours in this, the sunset of their lives. And so keep them with us for many more years to come. I want all to know that, 'I will do my best for the city I love the most.' "

E. JERRY COLLINS
. . . Machinist

COLLINS SAYS:"As a resident of Campbell I feel that the City of Campbell lacks adequate facilities for the youth of this city, I feel as a Councilman I can initiate a program to provide activities for the youth under the direct supervision of the City of Campbell. I also feel that the police and fire departments are undermanned and are operating under a severe handicap due to the lack of security in the form of city civil service benefits and more stable working conditions. Correction of this problem by the establishment of a commission will give the taxpayer better protection as well as better value for his tax dollar.

"Furthermore the City of Campbell needs to expand and invite light manufacturing into the area without interfering with existing residential sections, which in turn, brings added revenues and citizens into our community. In addition, it is my objective to serve my neighbors by hearing their problems, and assist them in proper representation in the council chambers."

FUNDS SOUGHT FOR NEW YOUTH CENTER

Santa Clara County Youth Center is conducting a one-shot appeal for $3500 to complete its new Youth Village, under construction at Newhall St. near Washington for more than a year.

Although three-fourths constructed, completion of the building must be delayed unless funds are contributed to buy materials, according to Raymond F. Triplett, San Jose insurance broker who is heading the drive.

Youth Center membership in 1956 is expected to hit an all-time record with 1270 boys and girls renewing membership in January and February alone. In 1955 the center had 3,477 members, with 30 per cent from communities other than San Jose and Santa Clara.

. . . Investments - Insurance

FAIRCHILD SAYS: "My decision to become a candidate for election to the City Council was prompted by my belief that the privilege of living in a community carries the obligation of active citizenship and the devotion of some time and thought to community affairs. As a community, Campbell has age and venerability and is a nice, quiet, friendly place in which to live.

"But, as a very young city in an area of unusually rapid growth, Campbell must adopt a definitely forward look and be alert to the future as well as cognizant of the present and mindfull of the past. If elected, my earnest endeavor will be to weigh every consideration carefully and to act upon each as the best interests of the City seem to dictate.

CAROLYN PAYNE
. . . Teacher

CAROLYN PAYNE SAYS: "I feel that keeping in close touch with the voters is the only way a public official can adequately serve the community. If elected, I want and expect the people of the community to keep me informed of any problems that may arise or needs which are not being filled, for there is no better way to learn the desires of the people of this city.

"I feel that there must be an aggressive annexation policy and a more intensive program of street repair and paving. I feel that the City Council should cooperate with the revitalized Chamber of Commerce and efforts should be made to obtain new industry to broaden the tax base. I think that civil service benefits should be inaugurated for city employees and qualified employees should receive adequate wages. Fire and police protection should also be increased for the growing west side. The city should be organized for emergencies such as our recent flood and future planning should also include a city park."

HARRIS FILES ON BOTH TICKETS

William J. Harris, Jr., San Jose attorney, who has filed for election as Assemblyman for the 29th Assembly District on both tickets, is a Democrat, and has been endorsed by the Santa Clara County Democratic Council.

Harris is a graduate of the University of California and Hastings College of the Law, and for the past four years has conducted a law practice in San Jose. He is a veteran of World War II, serving as a Navy pilot.

CLAUDE R. SMITH
. . . Salesman

SMITH SAYS: "I am a property owner and I also lease and operate the Campbell Hotel, therefore, I am interested in the welfare and operation of our city. I would like to see some industries here so some of our people could work at home.

"I am 100 per cent for our schools and I am also for a new city hall. I also favor parks and recreation grounds for our young and also for the older people who have no where to go. These may easily be provided by proper guidance. Last and not least I will fight for annexation to our city instead of being given to San Jose."

St. Lucy's Mothers' Guild

Father Vincent McGinty, S. J. will address the group at their meeting in St. Lucy's School hall next Tuesday at 1 p. m.

Election of officers will precede the program. A report on the recent fashion show will also be heard.

JOHN CHARGIN
. . . Incumbent

CHARGIN SAYS: "I am basing my candidacy on the council's record of performance over the last two years. In that time, we have added needed equipment and personnel to the police, fire and public works departments. We have set up our own office of building inspector, thereby rendering a more efficient service to the citizenry and effecting substantial revenue gains. With the Hamilton Avenue widening and storm drainage program, we have taken the first significant steps toward our goal of improvement of all our major streets and city-wide storm drainage.

"We have stepped up our annexation program, and have fought the unwarranted encroachment of our natural boundaries by larger cities nearby. Yet even with these growing pains and problems of our city, we have succeeded in keeping well within the legal tax rate limit of one dollar.

"If re-elected, I will continue to serve the citizens of Campbell faithfully, conscientiously, and to the best of my ability."

SAN TOMAS SUMMARY

Twelve year old Sharon James was badly burned by an exploding pressure cooker last Thursday. She spent some time in Doctor's Hospital, and will be out of school at least two weeks.

The Missionary circle of the Wedgewood Church spent last Thursday at the home of Alma Lee Poalm in San Jose. Jean Flaxbeard, Lennie King, and Florence Craft were among those who met for a pot-luck lunch and a day of sewing.

The mothers of Boy Scout Troop 30 sponsored a dance for the young men of the troop and their dates recently. All the mothers joined forces to provide refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford led the dancing. Eric Shaurt led games. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hart, Mrs. Barbara Hancock, and Mrs. J. T. Bullock chaperoned the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Houghman were guests of honor. The affair was held in the cafetorium of the San Tomas School.

The San Tomas Baptist Church held an Easter Sunrise service on their church lot in conjunction with the Campbell and Cambrian churches. Mrs. Letzell Hoover and her two daughters, Mary Ellen and Barbara sang as a trio.

After church about 20 young people enjoyed breakfast at the home of Pastor Warren before going on to the regular Easter service where the girls' Carol Choir and the Adult Choir joined to render special Easter music.

Margaret Smith came home from O'Connor's Hospital the Friday before Easter, following a successful operation on her knee. She will be on crutches another week as a result of the skiing accident she suffered on the Newman Hall skiing trip almost a month ago.

Starts Campaign

"Fight Cancer With a Checkup and a Check" is the slogan selected for the American Cancer Society's April cancer crusade.

Mrs. Elise Belenky, campaign chairman, announced the slogan summarizes twin objectives of the county-wide drive, on the one hand, stressing the need to catch cancer at the start by having regular physical examinations and by learning to recognize cancer's early warning signs. On the other hand, the group will be soliciting funds needed to support its year-around program

Mrs. Belenky pointed out that periodic health examinations are saving increasing numbers of patients from cancer deaths. She further stated, "Everyone over 35 should have a complete physical checkup once a year. Women over 35 and men over 45 should have two."

Moreland Plans Future Classes

Moreland Citizens' Advisory Committee last Monday discussed curriculum and transportation for the district schools and their eventual plan to have a school in each neighborhood so all children can walk to school.

Class plans for four schools in the district, including Strawberry Park School now under construction, were formulated and prepared for submission to the board of trustees for approval.

Following are submitted class plans: Moreland to house 6th, 7th and 8th grades of four classes each, also four kindergarten classes. Kindergarten classes were included in class plans for Moreland School because playground equipment is already on the grounds.

Recommendations for El Quito Park School include four first grade classes and two classes each for 2nd, third, fourth and fifth grades.

Bucknall School suggestions include one class each for first through fifth grades, with two kindergarten classes.

For Strawberry Park School, recommended plans include four kindergarten classes, three classes each of first and second grades and two classes each for third and fourth grades.

Henry Nettesheim presided at the meeting.

QUITO QUORNER

Tom Williams, chairman of the Westhope Church building committee reports that plans are being drawn for three Sunday School rooms and a pastor's study. Dick Leeper, chairman of the Plans Committee hopes they will be finished in time to see the building done this summer.

Bruce Holmes, chairman of the finance committee is conducting a funds drive. Dean Eckey, chairman of the Needs Committee has told all the church members of the 300 children who attend Sunday School. He has reminded them of the new subdivision being built on the corner of Quito and McCoy. The entire congregation is convinced that the addition is necessary, and the building committee has now found the way clear to materializing it.

The Sew and So Club met last Wednesday at the home of Sally Cristoffe at 13349 McCulloch. The women who live on this street found they were spending more time than they could afford visiting each other. Now they meet every second Wednesday, rotating from the home of one neighbor to the adjacent. Members who fail to notify their hostess of an impending absence are fined 50 cents, and there are small monthly dues. At the end of the year the treasury is drained for a dinner meeting at which their husbands are guests.

At their Easter meeting, Sally served little pastry Easter baskets with coffee, and the customary sewing and visiting were enjoyed by the members.

Mrs. Jerry Close, troop leader of the Second grade Bluebirds at Quito School, reports that her troop, which chose "Sharing" as its name is going on a roller skating trip as a reward for having sold the most candy in its distrtict.

Rev. Denis Kennelly, pastor of St. Lucy's Church in Campbell, will be one of the special guests. Mrs. Leslie Fairchild, president of St. Lucy's Women's Club in Campbell, will be one of the hostesses.

Business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Vladimir F. Fabris, County Council president.

"Ignorance breeds monsters to fill up all the vacancies of the soul that are occupied by the vereties of knowledge. He who dethrones the idea of law bids chaos welcome in its stead."

"Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?"
